

Join one of the world's most innovative technology companies

Kromek is a fast-growing Anglo American platform technology company recognised globally as a game-changing innovator in the field of digital x-ray and radiation detection and imaging technology for the security screening, medical imaging and nuclear detection markets.

Specializing in developing end-user radiation detection products utilizing proprietary CZT semiconductor and industry standard scintillation detector technologies, Kromek's product portfolio is growing fast with significant new product /new market opportunities for these disruptive technologies.

Excellent salary and benefits package

Kromek is looking for exceptionally talented, ambitious and motivated individuals seeking an international role within a young, highly progressive technology firm and would like to hear from high-calibre individuals who can take the company forward.

For more information on this position and other opportunities, contact:
Julie Savage on 01740 626060, or email:
recruitment@kromek.com

Process Technician

The Opportunity

Kromek is seeking a Process Technician to provide manufacturing, electronics and project support. The role also involves some field service support to our end user customers. The post will be located at our Sedgefield Office in County Durham.

Responsibilities:

- Manufacturing of Radiation Detection Products
- Technical support and problem solving
- Field Service Support
- Working on new products involving teams of people to deliver, significant market opportunities

Skills and experience:

- 3+ years' experience in electronic manufacturing
- Trained to HND/Apprenticeship Level

Essential skills:

- Technical / Electronics background
- Proven problem solver
- Flexible worker, capable of working on fast moving projects within a delivery driven environment
- Experience of working in a manufacturing team
- Some flexibility to travel at short notice within UK and abroad
- Will require Customer Security Clearances
- Essential to have a driving license

The Benefits:

- Life Assurance
- Stakeholder pension scheme
- Share Options
- Private Health Insurance Scheme
- 25 days holiday plus statutory days